The American Academy of Pediatrics invites you to a Congressional Ice Cream Social

In Cooperation with:
The Honorable David Reichert (R-WA) and The Honorable Betty McCollum (D-MN), co-chairs, Congressional Global Health Caucus

The U.S. Commitment to Saving the Lives of Mothers and Children

For the first time, ending preventable child and maternal deaths worldwide is finally within reach—which is good news for stable societies, growing economies, and the health of families. Learn what the U.S. government has already accomplished based on hard-won reforms, the leveraging of partners’ resources, and the scaling up of proven solutions—as well as the challenges still ahead. Ice cream will be served.

Monday, April 24, 2017
5:00 pm to 6:30 pm
Rayburn House Office Building Room 2060
This will be a widely attended event.
